

Freelance Workshop Facilitator - Visual Arts Social Media Project

Venue: Harrow, Headstone Manor & Museum

Delivery: Tuesday 24th October

Fixed Fee: £600 to include delivery, 1 meeting and 1-day planning

Workshop details:

Headstone Manor & Museum would like to recruit an engaging workshop facilitator to lead planning and delivery of a one-day Visual Art Social Media Workshop for young people. The workshop will encourage young people aged 16-22 to engage with local heritage and culture, exploring the history of Headstone Manor and Museum and generating creative visual responses to their findings using social media techniques and platforms.

Engagement:

The facilitator will be required to attend a 1-day planning session in September and a final meeting shortly before the workshop. The workshop delivery will take place between 10.00am-5.00pm on Tuesday 24th October 2017.

Person specification:

We are particularly interested to hear from freelance individuals who have the following experience:

- Experience in the heritage & cultural sectors
- Hands-on knowledge of social media engagement for young people.
- Up to date DBS check
- Public Liability Insurance

To apply:

Please email a short covering letter (max 500 words) and CV to Matthew Wright at Archive@harrowmuseum.org.uk by 10.00am Friday 18th August 2017
